Chapter 1 by Thomas McCann

You and all your friends decide to go on a camping trip in the summer. Everything is fine until morning. One of your friends goes missing and inside his tent the sleeping bag is empty smeared with blood...

Chapter 2 by Hayes

The friend later found out that the blood was sriracha sauce and he took out his burrito and dipped it in the sauce; he then ate his burrito.

Chapter 3 by Comp Som "CS" Anichi

The friend who acted like the boss scolded both of you.

Him because of the sriracha thing, and you for not saying anything. You were going to protest that you were asleep, but decided not to bother.

Because of the sriracha incident, you guys were filthy. You guys decided to play in the spring nearby.

The road forked into two roads. The left led to the hot springs, where one can relax. The other onto the little lake, where people usually played, and the water was cold.

Your friends were arguing where to go.
